FIRST IRISH TWO-YEAR-OLD RACE AT THE CURRAGH TODAY

The first race for two-year-olds in Ireland takes place on the Curragh's eight-race card this afternoon, which also features the Gr.3 Irish EBF Park Express Stakes for fillies and mares aged three and above.

The 11-runner contest, due to begin at 1.35pm as the first race on the card, will be run over 5f and sees the progeny of four first-season sires hit the racecourse for the first time.

Castlehyde Stud's Gr.2 Coventry Stakes winner and dual Gr.1-placed Arizona has his first runner in the form of Josh Halley's Besiege. A £21,000 yearling purchase, the chesnut colt will be partnered on debut by Seamie Heffernan, who has recently announced his decision to ride freelance this term, ending a long and successful full-time association with Ballydoyle.

Another Scat Daddy-line sire, Whistbury Manor's Sergei Prokofiev, will be represented by Arizona Blaze, who boasts the same connections as the winner of this contest last year, Bucanero Fuerte (Wootton Bassett). This colt was an £82,000 purchase by Rodrigo Goncalves and Aguiar Bloodstock from Glenvale Stud at last year's Goffs Premier Yearling Sale at Doncaster and is trained by Adrian Murray for AMO Racing and Giselle de Aguiar.

Castlehyde Stud's Arizona is one of four first-season sires to have their first runner in the 5f Irish EBF maiden at the Curragh this afternoon.

ITALY

SECOND CIRCO MASSIMO VICTORY FOR FLAG’S UP

Three of the best Italian horses faced off in the Listed Premio Circo Massimo over 2000m at Rome on Sunday. Flag’s Up (War Command), who had finished his five-year-old campaign by landing his first Group win in the Gr.2 Premio Roma last year, produced a very good comeback under a 3kg penalty.

Mario Sanna rode a perfect race, waiting until the last 300m to switch Flag’s Up when the favourite Tempesti (Albert Dock) had picked up the lead over the front-runner Goldenas (Golden Horn). Sanna’s mount outgunned Tempesti to score by a length and a quarter, with Goldenas a further half-length back in third.

Flag’s Up had already won the Circo Massimo in 2022, but failed to score again until Stefano Botti decided to geld him and drop him into handicap company. He has won six of his subsequent seven races and has another promising season in front of him.

Bred by Razza del Velino, he was a €12,000 purchase at the SGA Selected Yearling Sale. His dam, the Stakes winner Baby Revolution (High Chaparral), is a half-sister to Time To Choose (Manduro), who won 14 races, including the Gr.2 Premio Presidente della Repubblica and the Gr.3 Premio Ribot. Baby Revolution has a two-year-old colt by Mastercraftsman and visited Holy Roman Emperor last season.

FRANCO RAIMONDI

LOVE IS IN THE AIR AT ROME

The four-year-old My Eternal Love (Cotai Glory) held off the fast-finishing Canticchiando (Raven’s Pass) by a nose and clinched his first Stakes win in the Listed Premio Natale di Roma over 1600m at Rome on Sunday.

The colt, who is owned by the very passionate Mario Sansoni, had just one previous attempt at Stakes level, when well-beaten in the Listed Premio Fassati last September, and his race fitness helped him to land a second win in four starts this season. Three horses were covered by less than a half-length at the finish and all had one or more runs this year. The exploits of My Eternal Love gave his breeder Razza del Velino a Stakes double yesterday afternoon.

A €42,000 purchase at the SGA Selected Sale, he is the 11th Stakes winner in three crops aged three or more by Cotai Glory (Exceed And Excel). His dam, My Sea Of Love (King’s Best), won no less than nine races and finished third in the Gr.3 (then) Premio Chiusura. She has produced four other winners.

ANOTHER GRADED SUCCESS FOR GANAMOS

The high-class David Cottin-trained steeplechaser Juntos Ganamos ran out an easy winner yesterday's Gr.3 Prix Troytown Chase over 4400m against the older horses at Auteuil.

The five-year-old son of Martaline was ridden forward and made most of the running in the early exchanges, before giving way to Gallipoli (Gleneagles) with six obstacles to jump. The pair pulled clear and Juntos Ganamos cantered past his rival approaching the last, before pulling clear in the straight to win by a dominant seven lengths. Last year's Gr.2 Cleeve Hurdle winner Gold Tweet (On Est Bien) was a further eight lengths adrift back in third.

This was a sixth Graded success for the gelding, whose last victory came in the Gr.3 Prix Orcada over the same course and distance. In May of last year, he had earned the biggest win of his career in the Gr.1 Prix Ferdinand Dufaure, defeating Le Marche Bleue (Saint Des Saints) by six lengths.

Cottin Said: "The horse did what was expected of him and he did it well. We're going to bring him along steadily via the Gr.3 Prix Ingre. I was very pleased with him today. He's only been at the stable for two months, having had a winter break in the countryside. He's an imposing horse who still needs to shed some weight. He was foot perfect regarding his jumping. He has all the attributes of a Grand Steeple horse."

Bred by the late Magalen Bryant, he is the most distinguished runner to be produced so far by the Gr.3-placed hurdler Usted Me Cara (Turgeon), who is a half-sister to the Listed-winning hurdler Victoria's Star (Poliglote) and the dam of the Gr.1 Prix Maurice Gillois third In Love (Great Pretender). Juntos Ganamos was a €45,000 purchase by Highflyer Bloodstock as a three-year-old and his Saints Des Saints half-brother made €200,000 to Olly and Aiden Murphy at the Tattersalls Ireland Derby Sale last June.

HIPSTER MAKES ALL TO LAND LISTED PRIZE

The seven-year-old Hipster Paradise made every yard of the running to land the Listed Prix Predicateur at Auteuil yesterday under Alexandre Chesneau.

In a field of 16 over 3900m on testing ground, the son of American Devil was soon sent to the front and dictated matters at a steady pace. The field was well-grouped together for most of the race, but leaving the back straight with two flights of hurdles left to jump, he had skipped several lengths clear of the chasing pack and still appeared to be travelling strongly. He produced a perfect jump over the last and ran on strongly up towards the line and, despite having his lead reduced late on, he held on to win by three lengths from Lou Fast (Rajsaman), whilst Helsinki Nolimit (No Risk At All) finished another six lengths further back in third.

On what was his first start since winning over the same course and distance back in September, it was a fifth career victory for Hipster Paradise but a first at Stakes level on his first attempt. Trained by Yannick Fouin and bred by SCEA des Sens, who own the gelding in partnership with his trainer, he is out of a half-sister to the dual National Hunt Gr.1 winner Elixir De Nutz (Al Namix).

LEON DU BERLAIS GETS OVERDUE STAKES SUCCESS

Arnaud Chaille-Chaille's Authorized colt Leon Du Berlais landed the final Stakes race at Auteuil yesterday, the valuable Gr.3 Prix d'Indy for four-year-olds over 3600m, in style under regular partner Gaetan Masure.

Always prominent, he disputed second jumping the final flight, but came home strongly on the run-in to win comfortably by five and a half lengths from Dominique Bressou's Losange Vert Bleu (Night Wish), whose half-brother Losange Bleu (Martaline) won this race last year, whilst Bon Garcon (Masterstroke) finished a length and a quarter further back in third.

Having finished runner-up on all five of his previous starts, it was an overdue and well-deserved victory for the Haras du Berlais-bred hurdler, who was last seen finishing second in the Gr.1 Prix Cambaceres over this course and distance back in November as a three-year-old.

Owned by Ecurie Hub de Montmirail and Haras du Berlais, he is from a fine French National Hunt family, being a half-brother to the Prix Cambaceres hero Bonito Du Berlais (Tremolino) and the dual Gr.2-winning and Gr.1-placed hurdler Nikita Du Berlais (Poliglote); dam of the Gr.3-winning and Gr.2-placed hurdler Angela Du Berlais, amongst others.

WINSTAR FARM'S IMPROBABLE DIES

Multiple Gr.1 hero Improbable was put down in Lexington on Saturday night after suffering ataxia behind, WinStar Farm announced yesterday.

The son of City Zip, who was undefeated at two, continued his high-class form at three, finishing fourth in the Gr.1 Kentucky Derby when sent off favourite. He went on to win three consecutive Gr.1 races (Hollywood Gold Cup, Whitney Stakes and Awesome Again Stakes) as a four-year-old and finished second in the Gr.1 Breeders' Cup Classic before being crowned Champion Older Dirt Male.

Spotlight on

Liberty Racing: Germany's Derby-winning syndicate

Last summer, the face of German racing changed, writes Xander Brett. On Sunday, 2nd July, Hamburg's Gr.1 Deutsches Derby trophy was presented not to a well-heeled owner, nor to an established breeding operation. Instead, it went to a syndicate. Liberty Racing was built around members who like to dream big. Henk Grewe, Peter Schiergen and Sarah Steinberg are on the training list. Rene Piechulek is on call to take rides. For Liberty's founder, Lars-Wilhelm Baumgarten, and for his partner Nadine Siepmann, the rapid rise of Fantastic Moon (Sea The Moon) turned 2023 into a whirlwind adventure that culminated in a trip to Paris for the Gr.1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.

Baumgarten is a well-known sports agent, but, though he may have interacted more with football players than thoroughbred racehorses, he is no racing novice. His equine interest began as a boy, while Siepmann's family involvement stretches back to the 1950s. Baumgarten, indeed, sits on the board of Deutscher Galopp, German racing's governing body. Together with a group of friends, he owned the 2019 German Derby runner-up Django Freeman (Campanologist). Baumgarten also bred last year's Gr.1 Preis der Diana heroine Muskoka (Sea The Moon). After another stab at the German Derby saw Wonderful Moon (Sea The Moon) trail home fifth in 2020, Baumgarten decided to target Hamburg's Holy Grail via a shared ownership initiative.

"It was Nadine's idea," he admits. "We started Liberty with 12 shareholders. It went well, so the following year we started a new group with 22 members." That syndicate, Liberty Racing 2021, is the collective behind Fantastic Moon, who finally delivered Baumgarten his childhood dream when the colt stormed two and a quarter lengths clear in the German Derby of 2023. Fantastic Moon's victory not only etched a syndicate's name onto the German Derby role of honour, but it allowed Sarah Steinberg to step forward as the first female trainer to land the Classic. "I'm very happy that Sarah won the Derby," says Baumgarten. "She had trained the Gr.1 Grosser Preis von Baden winner in 2022, so everyone knew she could do it."

Liberty Racing 2021 also keeps dual Italian Listed winner Winning Spirit (Soldier Hollow) on its books. Winning Spirit was last year's Gr.2 Derby Italiano runner-up and came fourth behind Fantastic Moon at Hamburg. Liberty Racing 2020, meanwhile, enjoyed the ownership of Assistent, a now five-year-old son of Sea The Moon. Assistent gathered a Listed win and a Gr.1 fourth-placed effort (in the 2022 German Derby) under Liberty's blue and gold silks.

Liberty Racing Australia is among the four 2023 offerings. If suitable, the horses in this syndicate will travel down under to race on after the 2025 German Derby. Baumgarten says Liberty Racing Australia contains six Germans, six Australians and an American member. An English-language version of Liberty's website is, perhaps, helping to draw in anglophone owners around the world. "We'll see what happens," Baumgarten muses. "We have a lot of good stayers in Germany... stayers with speed. I think we can find a horse." The dream, he confirms, is for Liberty to own a winner of the Gr.1 Melbourne Cup.

Australia may be used to shared ownership initiatives, but Liberty was something of a lone wolf when it started life in Germany. Introducing the model, Baumgarten thinks, was long overdue. Syndicates, he says, are the only way to bring "normal people" into the sport, and Liberty has been warmly embraced by German racing as a result. The entourage its trails, however, means racecourses have found it difficult to keep up. "At the beginning," Baumgarten explains, "we had about 30 people coming to each meeting. That was OK. Now, when you factor in spouses and children, we could be 300 people."

If there are blueprints of how syndicate attendance can be managed, the answers must lie across the English Channel. Inspiration, too, can be taken from down under, where group ownership has been the sport's lifeblood for decades. "We have a good connection to Australia," Baumgarten confirms, saying he and Siepmann last travelled over in January to attend the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. "We love its racing industry, and we can learn a lot from it."

Liberty's horses are, though, not confined to the tracks of Germany and Australia. Fantastic Moon took the organisation on two trips to Longchamp last year. He secured the Gr.2 Prix Niel in September, before coming home six and a half lengths behind Ace Impact (Cracksman) in the Arc. After his Prix Niel success, there was talk of then three-year-old packing a suitcase for Ireland, where he would have bumped into Auguste Rodin (Deep Impact) in the Gr.1 Irish Champion Stakes. The meeting never materialised, but Britain and Ireland are still on the cards for Fantastic Moon's four-year-old campaign.

A return to France, however, will be Fantastic Moon's first point of call as he searches for more top-level success. "We hope he will win a Gr.1 outside Germany," says Siepmann. "We'll start him in a Listed contest at Hoppegarten. From there, we'll head to Longchamp and the Gr.1 Prix Ganay."

Baumgarten says he will wait to find out whether the colt is fit enough, pointing out that the air at Sarah Steinberg's Munich yard is chillier than in Paris. "I think 2100m could be better for him," Baumgarten explains. "We want to create a sire, so the Prix Ganay could be a very interesting target." Should Fantastic Moon finish first or second in the Prix Ganay, Siepmann and Baumgarten say they will discuss a trip to the Gr.1 Coronation Cup, the Gr.1 Prince of Wales's Stakes or the Gr.1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes. Failing that, a voyage to Australia could be the way forward. "As we see it," Baumgarten concludes, "Fantastic Moon will win a Gr.1 this season and stand as a sire next year."

Fantastic Moon's retirement to stud, however, will not be the end of the Liberty members' emotional involvement with the horse. Siepmann and Baumgarten have not only introduced their owners to the world of German racing. Instead, they have involved members in the intricacies of its bloodstock world and the passage of its sales calendar. Siepmann says she and Baumgarten are assisted by Wilhelm 'Kojak' Feldman, Andre Böhmer and a vet at the BBAG. Liberty's trainers are also in attendance and its owners often make the trip down. "We have a meeting at Baden-Baden," Siepmann explains. "There, we give our owners the shortlist."

Baumgarten says the sales process mirrors his routines as a football agent. "We're five different people," he explains, "and five different scouts." He and Siepmann mark the catalogue. Before proceeding with a purchase, though, they seek the approval of each member of the immediate team. "If we don't have five 'yesses', we don't buy," Baumgarten says, explaining that the shortlist will be whittled down from about 60 possibilities to a shopping list of 12-odd. Ten yearlings entered Liberty syndicates at the end of last year, with members ready to follow their efforts on the racecourse this season.

Of the Liberty three-year-olds, Siepmann says Palladium is her pick of the pack. The son of Gleneagles was defeated by just half a length on his second and final outing at two. The spoils of that contest went to a subsequent Gr.3 winner in Marcus Klug's Wonderful Boy (Sea The Moon). Liberty Racing 2022 also includes Kampfer, a Protectionist colt who is a half-brother to Kassada (Sea The Moon), the runner-up in last year's German Oaks, where the filly was denied by a neck.

Baumgarten admits that neither Palladium nor Kampfer possess the star quality of Fantastic Moon. That said, he is confident they can hold their own in Hamburg's Derby this July. "I think Palladium is our number one," he asserts. Academica (Gleneagles), whose third dam is the legendary Lombard mare Allegretta, will be directed at Düsseldorf's German Oaks, while the Zoffany colt Argentum may have his sights set on the Italian Derby.

With their Australian offshoot, Liberty may dream of cross-continental domination. As Siepmann says, though, should Amico (Camelot) or Aquaman (Cracksman) come up with the goods, 2025 could at least be the year their success goes truly pan-European.
